

AMHERST, NEW YORK — May 8, 2007— zenhire™, Inc., a leading-edge provider of innovative web-based collaboration and technology solutions for the human capital industry announces a new member. Paramount Recruiting Partners; joins the zenhire affiliate network representing Western New York. Paul Yuhas, Managing Partner at Paramount says, “Our zenhire membership allows us to be more nimble and competitive in our niche markets and beyond. It permits us to offer our clients and candidates a whole new level of world-class tools and services that compete with anyone in our space – locally, nationally and globally. Our blended approach to recruiting – merging the best technology and services with good old-fashioned networking – fits perfectly with the zenhire solution. For any recruiter who understands the value of having a network of colleagues and back-office services, joining the zenhire network is a no-brainer”.

zenhire launched myzennet™ in January 2007, a professional network for Human Capital Professionals. The dictum “Built by Recruiters for Recruiters™” is just that! Myzennet is comprised of tools and services closely integrated to deliver effective tools and services that are integrated providing Independent Recruiters and Small Staffing Firms a strong platform need without the exorbitant cost. “We believe myzennet to be the most innovative online recruitment service of its time,” comments Jeff Radt, Partner at Paramount. “myzennet represents innovation and technology at its best.”

Finally a service that provides recruiters with a range of tools and services which include the ability to quickly and accurately match candidates to vacancy requirements from within the network while maintaining security. The system facilitates the introduction colleagues who either have a resume that matches a job description and vice versa, connecting recruiters nationally to expedite the fulfillment of a clients’ job order. As a member of myzennet affiliate members immediately expand their network and participate in new revenue streams while working seamlessly within a secure environment. myzennet has been built with some powerful tools and integrated with services that are used by all of us daily. “It is mission to deliver services integrated without expecting our affiliates to change they work.” Says Robert Fritzing, President /CEO of zenhire.

Recruiters are invited to call 716 639 9674 or email sales@zenhire.com for a demonstration.